

PEOPLE AWARDS

2019 ENTRY FORM

Charity/Community Champion of the Year

Throughout the sector individuals or teams are going above and beyond everyday business activities, finding innovative ways to raise money for charity or put something back into their local community. This award is a chance to shine a spotlight on this important but often little recognised part of business life.

The judges will be looking for:

- Examples of initiatives implemented by the nominee which have improved the business's relationship with the local communities
- Evidence of how the nominee has found innovative ways to raise money for charity and put back into the local community
- Examples of how the nominee has gone above and beyond to engage colleagues with the local community
