2019 ENTRY FORM

Training & Development Champion

Possibly but not necessarily from within the Human Resources function, this nominee is someone who puts the development of others first and has initiated programmes or delivered hands-on training that have yielded tangible results for the business.

The judges will be looking for:

- Examples of excellent leadership and workplace improvements by the nominee
- Examples of how the nominee has driven the team development forward through their ideas or initiative
- Evidence of how the nominee has improved employee engagement with training and development
- Evidence that the nominee has gone above and beyond the requirements of their job role

Before completing this form, please read the rules of entry and terms and conditions HERE.
